Mr. Sidney Shalett
Washington Correspondent
The American Magazine
601 Thirteenth Street, N.W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Shalett:

Thanks very much for your kind note of 20 June. I do hope we shall have the chance to see you again when Congress finally adjourns, and we can get the "politicos" out of our hair.

With best wishes, please believe me,

Sincerely,

R. H. Willenhoetter

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

It was good to have had the pleasure of meeting you recently. I wanted to let you know that I now have ended my long connection with The New York Times to become Washington correspondent for The American Magazine. I hope to have the pleasure of calling on you again sometime in the future.

Meanwhile, if you should wish to get in touch with me I can be reached either at my home-[redacted] Street, N. W., telephone [redacted] or at the Washington office of The American Magazine, 601 Thirteenth Street, N. W., telephone, District 5505.
